

Cookies Policy

This cookie policy (this “Cookie Policy”) describes the cookies used in connection with the websites (the “Websites”) managed by Takamiya Co., Ltd. (“we”, “us” or “our”).

We use cookies and other similar mechanisms (collectively, “cookies”) to collect data of the users of the Websites (“you” or “your”) while you are browsing the Websites in order to distinguish you as a user for the duration of your visit (“session cookie”) and when you return to the Websites (“persistent cookie”).

1. What Is a Cookie?

A cookie is a small file stored on your browser or computer hard drive, which is used to collect data about your interactions with websites, such as browser type, operating system, IP address, and browsing dates and times. Cookies do not collect any data from your computer or access your personal files.

2. What Kind of Cookies Do We Use?

We use different types of cookies, including:

- Strictly Necessary Cookies

These cookies enable you to navigate the Websites. They are necessary for the Websites to function and cannot be switched off in our systems. They are usually only set in response to your actions that amount to requests for services, such as setting your privacy preferences, logging in, or filling in forms. You can set your browser to block or alert you about these cookies, but some parts of the Websites will not work in such case. These cookies do not store any personally identifiable information.

- Functional Cookies

These cookies enhance the functionality and personalization of the Websites by storing your preferences. They may be set by us or by third-party providers of services we have added to the Websites. If you do not allow these cookies, some or all of these services may not function properly.

- Performance Cookies

These cookies improve the performance of the Websites and provide you with a better user experience.

We use Google Analytics, a service of Google, to collect information about how people use the Websites. Google Analytics stores information about what pages you visit, how long you are on the sites, how you got there, and what you click on, etc. This information cannot be used to identify who you are. We receive the analysis results from Google and determine how you use the Websites therefrom. Such information is managed by Google in accordance with its privacy policy. Please visit the following Google websites to obtain further information regarding how Google uses cookies.

- Targeting Cookies

These cookies may be set through our site by our advertising partners. They may be used by those companies to build a profile of your interests and show you relevant adverts on other sites. They are based on uniquely identifying your browser and internet device. If you do not allow these cookies, you will experience less targeted advertising.

3. Expiration

Session cookies may be stored on your browser or computer hard drive for as long as you keep such browser active, and persistent cookies may be stored on your browser or computer hard drive for a longer period.

4. First-Party/Third-Party Cookies

Generally, cookies are placed on your device by the website you visit (“first-party cookies”) or by third parties providing services such as advertising (“third-party cookies”).

We use the following third-party cookies on the Websites.

6. Changes to this Cookie Policy

We reserve the right to modify this Cookie Policy at any time. When we make changes, we will revise the “Last Updated” date at the bottom of this Cookie Policy, and any change will be effective immediately upon posting. When we make changes to this Cookie Policy, we will appropriately inform you in advance where such changes impact your rights as a user of the Websites or where required by law, for example by posting a notice on the Websites. However, your continued use of the Websites following the posting of changes will constitute your acceptance of such changes. We encourage you to review the applicable version of this Cookie Policy whenever you use the Websites.
